BEFORE
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SOUMITRA SAIKIA

ORDER

18.04.2024

Heard Mr.R. Sarma, learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. S.S. Roy, learned CGG for the respondents.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that Disciplinary Proceedings were instituted against the late husband of the writ petitioner dismissing him from services w.e.f. 27.09.1989 and the petitioner was not in the knowledge of the said Disciplinary Proceedings instituted against the late husband of the writ petitioner and no steps were taken to assail that order. The fact remains that the Disciplinary Proceedings are not under challenge in the present writ petition as the petitioner was not aware of the said fact as it had occurred during the lifetime of her late husband.

In that view of the matter, the learned counsel for the petitioner does not wish to press the writ petition any further, but, however seeks liberty to challenge the Disciplinary Proceedings instituted against the late husband of the writ petitioner as per provision of Law.

In view of the submissions made, the writ petition stands dismissed as not pressed.

Interim orders, if any, stands vacated.
