4. The Child Development Project Officer (CDPO), Golakganj ICDS Project, vide the communication dated 03.11.2011, issued a show-cause notice to the petitioner requiring her to submit her replies with regard to the allegations that were leveled against her in the complaint received on 12.08.2001 and 19.08.2011. The petitioner vide her representation dated 14.11.2011, submitted a detailed reply to the allegations as leveled against her in the complaints so received and incorporated in the said show-cause notice dated 03.11.2011.

5. It is the projection of the petitioner that after receipt of her said reply dated 14.11.2011, the allegations against the petitioner having been satisfactorily explained by the petitioner, the authorities did not proceed any further in the matter and the petitioner continued to discharge her duties in the said Anganwadi centre.

6. It is under the above circumstances that the petitioner on 23.02.2012, received a communication dated 15.02.2012 by which the petitioner was placed under suspension and the works of the Anganwadi worker in the said centre was directed to be discharged by the Anganwadi helper working therein.

7. A perusal of the said communication dated 15.02.2012, reveals that the same was so issued basing on a communication received by the Government from the respondent no. 6. The CDPO, Golakganj ICDS Project, on receipt of the said communication dated 15.02.2012, issued an order dated 22.02.2012 permitting the Anganwadi helper to run the said Anganwadi centre in place of the petitioner who was stated to have been placed under suspension.

It is also to be highlighted that no proceedings against the petitioner came to be instituted in the interregnum basing on any allegations that may have been alleged against her.

11. In view of the said facts and circumstances as existing in the matter, this Court is of the view that the communication dated 15.02.2012 cannot be sustained and accordingly, the same stands set aside and quashed.

12. The interference made with the communication dated 15.02.2012, requires the order dated 22.02.2012 to be interfered with and accordingly, the order dated 22.02.2012 also stands interfered with.

13. With the above observations and directions, the writ petition stands disposed of, requiring the respondent authorities to allow the petitioner to continue to work as the Anganwadi worker at 112 No. Pub Ratiadaha (Namasudrapara) AWC under Golakganj ICDS Project.
