For the Respondents : Mr. Anil Kumar, ASGI

04/02.08.2024   At the outset, learned ASGI contended that there is a provision of an appeal against the order of punishment. As a matter of fact, the petitioner has also filed several other writ applications being W.P.(S) No. 108 of 2023, W.P.(S) No. 106 of 2023, W.P.(S) No. 109 of 2023, W.P.(S) No. 112 of 2023, W.P.(S) No. 110 of 2023 and the same were disposed of on the ground of alternative remedy of appeal.

2.   In reply to this, Mr. A. Allam learned senior counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be given liberty to prefer an appeal before the respondent no.2, who shall decide the appeal on merits.

3. Having regard to the limited submission, the instant application is hereby disposed of by giving liberty to the petitioner to prefer an appeal within a period of 4 weeks. If an appeal is preferred before the respondent no. 2, the same shall be disposed of on merits.

4. With the aforesaid observation, the instant application stands disposed of.
